

Wildflower Open Classroom is a public, tuition free, charter school available to all k-8th grade students in the greater Chico community. Wildflower Open Classroom envisions an integrated thematic learning environment in which our community strives to create self-motivated, competent, and lifelong learners passionately committed to the celebration of diversity, stewardship of the earth, positive interpersonal relationships, appreciation of the arts, and academic excellence.

Thank you for your generous tax-deductible donation to Wildflower Open Classroom. A letter detailing your yearly contributions will be sent to you each January.
